... THANK YOU ...

We feel that we cannot let this opportunity pass to express our thanks collectively and individually to each and every member whose support and cooperation have made this an outstanding Garrison year. We hope that the coming year will see even greater support on your part to the new officers, and that the friendships we have made through our work will endure forever.

It is for us to thank you in bringing together fellows whose many long hours of work have been happy ones because each found in the other the spirit that truly represents the Arrow.

Whatever the future may bring, each officer is taking away with him memories of pleasant association, fun, and comradeship in the complex task of handling the many problems the Arrow presents.

MAKE THIS A GALA YEAR FOR YOUR

"Years ago, in the dim ages --"

In the beginning..... for so all legends start..... five lodges came into existence in Chicago. One of them was what is now known as the Garrison Chapter. Time has dimmed the record.... who its founders were, who its first officers were are unrecorded.

The then lodge functioned bravely. Slowly, carefully, jealously, it picked up members. The men who composed its membership then are lost in the curtain of oblivion..... no record was kept of who they were...None was needed for each man knew the other through intimate like experiences. Of what need was a record?

They were men of determination, these forefathers of ours, deeply convinced that theirs was the right course. Men of principle they were.....and when they disagreed with the Order leadership in Chicago on some matter unrecorded, their pride would not let them admit defeat or apology. A heated discussion must have followed among themselves for the Lodge then cut itself adrift and formed "The Order of the Garrison" so named because of the blockhouse being planned as the central feature of the Scout camp which was their home, Camp McDonald....now Camp Stuart.

It is written that a house divided cannot stand. The rebellious little Lodge struggled alone. Who knows with what covetous eyes they watched their former Lodge affiliates carry on the work they themselves so recently had performed? Who knows the secret longings, hopes that died with a sigh, and internal strife that struggled in the hearts of those Garrisonites?

Time proved a great Healer; whatever the cause of the rift, it became relatively unimportant as time passed. Soon members forgot the wound and desired peace with their former Lodges. The memories of such men as Jack Rohr....whose favorite initiation stunt was to demand the holding of live coals in the hand....were fading.

And so peace came unto a weary group of exiles.... they rejoined the Order of the Arrow and with a little touch of defiance insisted that theirs was to be known as the Garrison Lodge. Thus, from 1921 to 1926, our little Lodge sprang into being, rebellion, and eventual reunion with the mother Lodge.

With the coming of 1927 a man entered the Lodge whose influence was to decide the eventual progress of the Lodge. He was part director of McDonald that year and 1928 and remained camp director till 1932. Harry K. Eby is in no small way responsible for the assembling of men who have carried on his work to this day.

The knowledge that our Lodge is founded in the courage of conviction, that its forefathers were men of spirit and loyalty, explains why today the Garrison Chapter of the Owasippe Lodge, each year moves onward into a stronger bond of increasing brotherhood and fellowship, and why its individual membership in ever-growing numbers seek opportunity to serve others in a common cause under the banner of an organization of the highest ideals.

The spirit that is Garrison is in each member; the fine, ambitious, clean, upright young men who compose it are living examples of its founders and tradition.

LET'S SINGHAND ME DOWN MY SILVER TRUMPET

- (L) Oh, I went down to the valley to pray
 (A) Hand me down my silver Trumpet Gab-riel
 (L) My soul got happy and I stayed all day
 (A) Hand me down my silver trumpet Lord.

Chorus

Leader: Oh, hand me down
 All: Hand me down
 Leader: Hand me down,
 All: Hand me down my Silver trumpet Gab-riel;
 Hand it down, throw it down
 Anyway to get it down
 Hand me down my Silver trumpet Lord.

Oh, I'm sometimes up and I'm sometimes down
 Hand me down my silver trumpet Gab-riel
 But still my soul is Heavenly bound
 Hand me down my silver trumpet Lord.
 (Chorus)

I looked over Jordan and what did I see?
 Hand me down my silver trumpet Gab-riel
 A Band of angels coming after me
 Hand me down my silver trumpet Lord. (Chorus)

Oh, Satan's mad, but I am glad,
 Hand me down my silver trumpet, Gab-riel
 He missed the soul he thought he had,
 Hand me down my silver trumpet, Lord. (Chorus)

If you get there before I do-O,
 Hand me down my silver trumpet Gab-riel
 Tell all my friends I'm coming too,
 Hand me down my silver trumpet, Lord

THE SCOUT COMPANY

Oh, when you hear the roll of the big bass drum,
 Then you will know that the Scouts have come;
 For the Scout Company is the best company
 That ever came out of the land of the Free.

Oh, when you get a line on a new recruit,
 Make him a Scout in a khaki suit: etc.

Oh, when you hear the sound of the morning call,
 Get on the job if you have to crawl, etc.

Oh, don't you be asleep when the mess call blows,
 You'll find where it is if you follow your nose, etc.

WIMACHTENDIENK, W. W.

Firm bound in brotherhood,
 Gathers the clan,
 That cheerful service brings
 to fellow-men:
 Circle our Council fire
 Weld tightly every link
 That binds us in Brotherhood,
 Wimachtendienk!

NEW STUART SONG

Oh, we're Stuart Campers gay and free,
 Loyal sons of Chief Owasippe
 We work and play and sing the whole day long
 We build up friendships true and strong,
 HAIL STUART!
 No matter how far we may roam
 Stuart will always be our home
 And when our camping days have ceased to be
 We'll praise O-WA-SIP-PE!

SUSIE!

Where, oh where, is sweet little Susie,
 Where, oh where, is sweet little Susie,
 Where, oh where, is sweet little Susie,
 WAY DOWN YONDER IN THE PAW-PAW PATCH.

Come, on boys, let's go find her (repeat 3 times)
 WAY DOWN YONDER IN THE PAW-PAW PATCH.

What, oh what, can she be doing? (repeat 3 times)
 WAY DOWN YONDER IN THE PAW-PAW PATCH

Picking up paw-paws, putting them in the basket (repeat 3 times)
 WAY DOWN YONDER IN THE PAW-PAW PATCH!

DINAH

Someone's in the kitchen with Dinah,
 Someone's in the kitchen I know.
 Someone's in the kitchen with Dinah,
 Playin' on the old banjo.

Fee-fi-fiddely-I-oh,
 Fee-fi-fiddely-I-oh;
 Fee-fi-fiddely-I-ohhhh,
 Playin' on the old banjo.

Fee plunk, fi-plunk, fiddely-I-oh-plunk
 Fee-fi-fiddely-I-oh, Plunk, Plunk, Plunk
 Fee. Fi. Fiddely-I-ohhhhhhh
 Playin' on the old banjo.

HAIL SCOUTING SPIRIT

Hail, hail! Sc-out-ing Spirit, Best in the Land;
 Hail! hail! Sc-out-ing Spir-it, United we stand.
 On-ward and up-ward we're treading,
 Always alert to make Scouting ready,
 We are prepared,
 Hail! hail! Sc-out-ing spir-it,
 Hail! HAIL! HAIL!
